He's dead.

Cornside's Marquess

Family
Tashia Rockard

Or rather, he became Blackdoring
but that is essentially
the same as being
dead.

Good
damn R!

He must've
received an order
directly from the king
if he left his side.

Why didn't I
ask about it...?

BECAUSE I DIDN'T THINK HE'D END UP LIKE
THIS, THAT'S WHY!!

In actual fact, this country is being supported by the councilors.

...Of course, most of them were selected by us, but...

Thus, they've been debating about who should be the one to fill that position.

I didn't think he'd tell Count Scramble...

Let's proceeding with his plans.

It's time to shake the Kingdom's foundations.

Get the airplane ready.

We're heading to Tortugay.

What's,
"Room Service"? ..?

First time in a hotel

Let's go out.
I'll explain it to you
while we dine.

Dragon Artifact Shopping

takes place in Viceport Auction from time to time during the Chute.

However, there's also a catalogue in Viceport Library.

A catalogue?

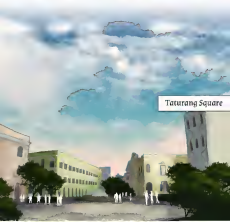

Well, it's been reported to confuse people, but once you know the trick, it's quite easy to solve.

They've been rejecting our requests for quite some time.

So let's go there in person.

Sure.

Tatung Square

Isk, isk. Who let
that slave escape?
Which merchant does
he belong to?

I heard they take
better care of them
before the auction.

Children expect to see something as
disgusting as this.

That ringed hat
means they are working
legally under the law.

I've told
you before: It's just here.

so please do
not pay them
any mind.

A little bit of
kindness goes a long way
in the world.

Please look at
your surroundings.

I don't feel
very good...

But more importantly,
it does not have
a future.

Due to the decrease in the Akoom's population, they've been using immigrants from the old continent for slaves.

However, they
tend to break free
and escape.

They also
made a special law
because of it.

At this point, they're
only using slaves to control
other slaves. They're no longer for the workforce.

Not only that,
technology for medicine,
food and everyday living
advances day by day.

Soon, we will
come to a time where
slaves will no longer
be needed.

Eventually the very concept of slaves will be wiped from the kingdom
within a couple of
generations.
